HEARING ON CONDEMNATION REPORT DELAYED TWO WEEKS

Several residents of the southwest part of town appeared at the meeting of the Board of Trustees last evening for the hearing on the report of the proceedings for the opening of Park avenue through to Central. The hearing was postponed until the next regular meeting of the board, Thursday evening, July 10, when the matter will be gone into more fully than was possible in the discussion last night. At that time the commissioners will be present to explain how they arrived at the figures for the assessments and damages in the district affected. Arguments will be heard on both sides of the question.

Two communications received by the board in regard to the matter were read last night. Both were filed at the same time and were signed by the same people, about fourteen in number, evidently hoping that if one did not accomplish its purpose the other would. All were signers of the original petition for the street opening. One was a request that the proceedings be dropped altogether, or postponed for one year when financial conditions might make the expense less burdensome. City Attorney Montgomery ruled that this petition could avail nothing because the time for protesting against the improvement had passed long ago and that the only thing under consideration now was the figures of the commissioners.

The second communication protested against acceptance of the commissioners' report, both on general and specific grounds. Fault is found both with the cost of the survey and of the work of the commissioners. Alleged unjust assessments and awards of damages are cited.

Mrs. L. E. Steinberger and E. P. Ballou spoke against either postponing or abandoning the street opening. They argued that the improvement had been petitioned for in good faith and the signers of the original petition were entitled to protection, now that the legal time limit for protesting was many months past, the proceedings having been started more than a year ago. Mrs. W. F. Brugman protested against delay, if the work is to be done at all. She said it would be an injustice to her and to J. R. Thrall, from whose property most of the proposed street will be taken, to delay the proceedings for any period, because of their inability to either improve it or derive an income from it during that time. The whole matter will be threshed out at the next meeting of the board.

Forest Fire Guards

Chairman Jones read communications from officials of a number of foothill towns to whom he had written for information regarding their policy in the hiring of fire guards for the forest reserve. None of them has placed men at the disposal of the government as had been reported to the board and the only municipal guards in such work were men whose duties kept them in the mountains, such as employees of some of the municipal water departments. In view of these facts it was decided to notify Chief Ranger Sloan that the city would be unable to comply with his request for one or more fire patrolmen to be placed at his command.

While the need of the greatest measure of fire protection was recognized by the trustees they argued that the Angeles Forest reserve is a reservoir and source of water supply not only for the foothill towns but for the whole San Gabriel Valley and that the welfare of the whole of Southern California is in a measure concerned in its protection. Hence the attitude of the forest service in cutting down the force of men because the reserve is not what is known as a "producing forest" was urged as mistaken and unjust. It is likely that steps will be taken to have the foothill and valley communities unite in a request upon the proper government officials for more protection.

Garbage Problem

Street Superintendent Udell reported that so far he had been unable to find anyone who would undertake the business of collecting garbage. He had, however, found a place in the valley where arrangements could be made for disposing of the garbage after its collection and thought some one might be found to do the hauling on payment of a small fee by each family served.

To Invest City Funds

City Treasurer Max Wolff sent in a communication calling attention to a recently adopted state law making certain classes of bonds available for the investment of city funds. Sinking funds have been created for the various water bond issues and as this money becomes available he proposed that it shall be invested so as to give the city the benefit of whatever income is available. He asked that the finance committee of the board be authorized to act with him in the approval of the bonds to be purchased, which was done.

Installation of a solar heater, bath tub, etc., at the municipal helping station was authorized. Mrs. Jensen, the municipal nurse, is now residing in the building so as to put her in closer touch with her work and it was felt that every possible convenience should be provided to make the place comfortable and to aid in the work.

PROFIT IN SMUDGING

Glendora Orange Grower Sums up Results from Use of Fire in Orchard

A return of over $10,000.00 on an investment of less than $500.00 is the way R. W. Hamlin of Glendora, chairman of the executive committee of the Sierra Vista Orchard protection Association, estimates the gross benefits he derived last winter from orchard firing, says an exchange.

So far this year Mr. Hamlin has marketed 8062 loose boxes of oranges for which he has received a little over $12,000. The year before Mr. Hamlin, like many others, took a chance and failed to equip his grove with heaters. As a result his gross returns for that year were only $1,800. "Last season," says Mr. Hamlin, "I early provided my ten-acre grove with 1,000 three-gallon heaters. We kept careful watch of the thermometer and I made it a rule whenever it dropped to twenty-eight degrees to start lighting every fourth row. We had the work so systematized that two men in forty minutes were able to distribute 400 gallons of oil, not only filling the heaters, but also make them ready for firing.

"During the cold spell, I used 12,000 gallons of oil which cost me $352.00. My labor bill for the period did not exceed $100.00, making a total expense for firing of $452.00. As I have marketed already over $12,000.00 worth of fruit as against $1,800.00 the year before, you can see what a profitable investment my orchard heaters provided."

CHILDREN VAUDEVILLE PERFORMANCE

Juvenile performers will give a Saturday afternoon and evening.

This vaudeville performance will take the place of the usual Saturday evening Moving Picture Show. It is an entertainment of special interest and charm, as was shown by the success in Santa Monica, where it was recently given. Many of the Santa Monica children have kindly consented to lend their assistance to the twelve little Sierra Madre maidens whose names follow below, and the whole is under the able management of Miss Kent whose name is a guarantee of excellence. An evening of frolic and fun, with ice cream and cake at the close, should appeal to our play-going public, grown ups and children alike.

Performance at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The names of those from Sierra Madre who take part are:

Bernadette Brown, Gertrude Elsner, Elsie Elsner, Virginia Jones, Lucile Dufner, Margarite Allep, Gladys Kimball, Louise Francisus, Gladys Walker, Florence Evans, Coralie Brown, Loraine Wright.

A FAIR QUESTION

The Southern California Edison Company has a form letter which it sends to customers who are having their service cut off on account of removal. One paragraph reads:

"We trust that our relations have been such as to warrant us in expecting to be favored with your business when you are again within reach of our lines."

The letter was sent out to one customer and was returned to District Agent Neelands with this notation written upon it:

"Mr. — is dead. How far do your lines reach?"

A jolly party of young people are enjoying a pleasant outing at the cabin in the Baily canyon and are chaperoned by Mrs. W. H. Ingraham. Those in the party are the Misses Dorothy Camp, Marine Brown, Hallie Kuhn and Messrs. Lawrence Nourse, Victor Hill, and Herbert Ingraham, of Sierra Madre; the Misses Frances Edwards, Donna Moses and Messrs. John Moses and Harry George of Los Angeles.

Barry S. Ulrich is visiting at the home of his father, A. L. Ulrich, while on the way to Honolulu where he has accepted a position with the law firm of Thompson, Wilder, Watson and Lymer. He completed his course at Harvard in June with the bachelor's degree both in law and liberal arts.

ICE BOX IS WANTED

Who has an ice box, or the means to buy one, to contribute to the good work which is being carried on by Mrs. Amelia Jensen, the municipal nurse?

In her ministrations among the sick Mrs. Jensen finds many occasions when some iced delicacy can be used to good purpose, and often finds it necessary to have ice for the preservation of things donated for her work. The Pasadena Ice Company, through its president, S. Hazard Halstead, has kindly agreed to furnish ice to Mrs. Jensen at half price. To take advantage of the offer an ice box will be necessary at the municipal holding station.

Who will furnish the ice box?

VERDICT FOR DEFENDANT

Judge Dunham of Pasadena gave a verdict in favor of C. W. Jones in the case brought against him by H. F. Bridges before the Pasadena Justice. Bridges sued for $25 alleged to be due for legal services rendered a couple of years ago but for which he admitted having rendered no bill until some time in 1913. The plaintiff introduced witnesses to prove that his charges were reasonable for the services claimed to have been rendered, but could not satisfy the court that they had ever been performed, in the face of the evidence introduced by the defendant.

WOMEN'S CLUB NOTES

Beautiful decorations were arranged for the Woman's Club House on the occasion of the last meeting of the year on Monday, Centerbury Bells given by Mrs. C. M. Clark being used in profusion. The retiring president, Mrs. W. H. Ingraham, made a graceful farewell speech, remembering with kind acknowledgments the support and help she had received throughout the year, and giving words of earnest encouragement to the incoming officers. Reports from the various committees followed. The newly elected officers were then installed. After the presentation of the gavel to the new president, Mrs. Frank Wright, a clever original poem was read by Mrs. Mitchell, alluding wittily to the various retiring officers.

The wisdom and expediency of continuing the moving picture show was the subject of lively discussion pro and con, and it was finally decided to continue the enterprise at least through the summer months. Refreshments and a social hour closed the very pleasant afternoon's session.

Mrs. T. M. Webster entertained the Modern Priscillas at her home on Bonita avenue on Thursday afternoon. A feature of the afternoon was a button hole contest, each guest being given a square of white cambric with needle and thread, with which they made a button hole, threading the needle and stitching with the left hand. Many outside guests were present.

CAMP TO OPEN SOON

A. N. CARTER WILL OPEN CARTER'S CAMP FOR SUMMER BUSINESS NEXT WEEK

Carter's Camp will be reopened next Thursday, July 3, and will be operated during the coming season under the management of A. N. Carter. The camp was closed during last season and news that it is to be re-opened will doubtless be welcomed by old patrons of the camp and by those who seek a mountain resort within very easy reach of the electric lines.

Arrangements have just been completed by Mr. Carter with W. S. Collins who recently purchased the Little Santa Anita Canyon, and owing to the shortness of the time remaining before the big exodus to the mountains begins much work will have to be done to get the camp ready for guests. However, Mr. Carter expects to be able to take care of the Fourth of July Crowds.

The camp cafeteria will be operated again on the plan which proved so popular during the last season the camp was open. All the tent frames and floors are in place and the tents can be made ready in a short time.

The arrangement with Mr. Collins gives Mr. Carter sole control and regulation of the camping and picnic business in the lower canyon. A mistaken impression has gotten abroad that the camp grounds would be opened this summer to "keg parties" and any other kind of entertainment which goes where the lid is off. Mr. Collins has expressed himself against permitting anything of the kind in the canyon. Mr. Carter has always protected his camp guests by prohibiting booze parties when he was operating the camp and may be depended upon to keep the canyon free from such nuisances.

Mrs. Frances B. Swan entertained friends to the number of sixty at Rockwood, Carter's Camp, on Monday afternoon. The program was a most interesting one and evening. Members of the faculty of Occidental and Throop colleges were among those present and a thoroughly enjoyable affair is reported.

FROM CAPTAIN OSGOOD

Hotel Tivoli, Panama,

June 10, 1913.

Dear Mr. Morgridge:—

Here we are in Panama where we arrived on June 8th. We sailed from San Francisco on Saturday, May 17th on the Steamer "City of Sidney." Our boat stopped at the following ports: Manzanillo, Acapulco, Santa Cruz in Mexico, Ocos, Champerico and San Osi in Guatemala, Acajutla and La Libertad in San Salvador, Corinto and San Juan del Sur in Nicaragua, Punta Armas in Costa Rica.

We have had a most delightful trip. The weather though intensely warm and moist, being perfect otherwise during the day. At night we had a number of electrical storms, but no damage was done. The barometer from Panama North is not reliable. Our captain confirmed my own observation on this point.

Here in the City of Panama all is bustle and intense activity through its connection with canal work. Although before the canal was taken hold of by the United States it was a dead town. Prices are high here. We have just visited the ruins of old Panama, which was destroyed by Morgan, the buccaneer, three hundred years ago. It is amazing to see the destruction caused without the use of dynamite. Walls seven feet thick were thrown down by the old pirate.

Before the coming of the Canal Commission, the streets were like trails here. Now streets are well paved, water and sanitary conditions all right.

This morning we visited the locks at Pedro Miguel and Miraflores. These are 95% completed. The afternoon we went through the cut at Culebra. Words are inadequate to express our feelings as we gazed upon this world's greatest success in engineering. We are filled with pride that our own great country stands back of this marvelous achievement. The slides frequent, big and small, give trouble, but the shovels, taking 6 to 7 tons at a dip make short work of them.

We shall leave Colon by the steamer Colon for New York on Saturday.

Kindest regards to yourself and our friends.

Yours truly,

J. A. Osgood

HOMEWARD BOUND

In a letter to the News from London, Mrs. Martha A. Williamson writes that she and Miss Alice Lockwood who have been abroad since last fall expect to sail for New York, July 1. They will spend several months in the East, expecting to return to Sierra Madre the latter part of October.

TRUST FIGHTS STATE BOOKS

SYSTEM IS MISREPRESENTED

Misleading Circular Attempts To Show State Textbook Series Is Failure

That the book trust is flooding the country with a garbled report of the senate committee regarding the publication of state text books has been discovered by Edward Hyatt, superintendent of schools of Williamson, W. Va., has written to Hyatt, inclosing a copy of this circular and asking for the truth regarding the matter.

"This circular," says Hyatt, "is a cunning piece of work. It quotes from the committee report only that portion reflecting upon the previous management of the state printing office. It studiously avoids quoting further from the report where the committee says: 'At this point your committee deems it proper to make it plain that the state printing office, which was found in a deplorable and wretched condition, has been transferred into an institution honesty, efficiently and economically managed, and reflects credit upon the present administration of the state.'

"This anonymous circular fails to show that there has been any change in the management of the state printing office, and says nothing about the fact that the report of the senate committee forced the resignation of the former state printer. The circular also carefully avoids publication of the table showing that State Printer Friend W. Richardson had reduced the cost of school books over 40 per cent."

During the past two months the state printing office has completed the manufacture of 212,500 school books for the children of the state and the bills show a saving of $28,512.50 from the cost prices under the old regime.

State Printer Richardson is particularly pleased at the cut made in the price of the Brief History, which under the former administration cost 52 cents, and was turned out last month for 25.6 cents, also in the Fourth Reader, which was cut from 33 cents to 14 cents.

The cut in manufacturing cost of state school books is shown in the following table:

	—Cost—	New, Old
Brief History .....	256	.52
Advanced Arithmetic .....	143	.32
Introductory History .....	156	.30

Speller Two .....	11	.165
First Reader .....	996	.152
Fourth Reader .....	14	.33
Fifth Reader .....	152	.33
The number of books completed during the past two months and the saving in manufacturing cost is shown as follows:
	Saving.
25,000 Brief History .....	$ 6,600.00
25,000 First Reader .....	1,400.00
25,000 Fourth Reader .....	4,750.00
12,500 Advanced Geography .....	1,437.50
25,000 Writing Book Three .....	450.00

MORE than two hundred authors, many of them of national repute and all widely known, took part in a contest recently held by the Volland Publishing Co., submitting sentiments for a series of "Personal Message Post Cards." This prize winning series of twenty-four cards has been received and is now on display.

Nothing more beautiful in design and sentiment has ever been created in post card form—the designs being in keeping with the sentiments and reproduced by a new printing process. The series includes both friendly greetings and birthday messages. All have the personal touch which has caused several persons to remark:

"That's exactly the message I want to send, and expressed so much better than I could possibly say it myself."

Other beautiful things are coming all the time—come in and "browse."

$61,000 Proposition!

== CAN YOU FILL THE BILL? ==

Help to Boost the City of Sierra Madre

We have interested a man of means who is a contractor, to locate here instead of going to Altaden.

Nearly twenty years of residence at sea level necessitates a change to higher altitude.

We have given him the reason why he ought to come to Sierra Madre and he has consented to follow our advice.

He will dispose of his real estate holdings in Los Angeles and Ocean Park partly for cash and exchange.

This is the Proposition:

We can offer his residence located in the neighborhood of the 2000 block on West 24th Street, Los Angeles, built by him at a cost of about $12,000 net. It contains 12 rooms, has hardwood floors all over the house and thoroughly modern in every respect. Lot 60x130 ft. facing north. Price $20,000 subject to mortgage of $7,500.

Also income business corner temporarily improved with several small buildings adjoining the Speedway near Pier Ave., in Ocean Park. Lot about 60 feet facing 50 foot street by 100 feet facing Speedway. Houses built by him at a cost of $6,200

net. Income $150 per month or on the basis of 7 per cent per annum. This site available for apartment house in the near future. Other nearby corners taken up fast for apartment buildings now in progress of erection. Very near the large lot recently purchased by Mr. Busch, the millionaire brewer and owner of the Busch Gardens in Pasadena. Our client would build an apartment on this site himself, but his determination to hereafter reside in the foot-hills precludes him from going into the scheme. Price $25,000 subject to mortgage of $5,000.

Another income property situated on Third Street in Ocean Park. This is the best paved street running through into Santa Monica. This proposition is composed of two small apartment houses of 3 apartments in each house built by him costing $5,000 net each. Income $130 per month or on the basis of nearly 10 per cent per annum. These are on two lots of 50 feet each or 100x130 feet. Price $16,000 subject to mortgage of $2,500.

We can offer either one or two of these properties for exchange. The prices have been thoroughly hewed down to lowest bedrock net cash basis, on figures taken from data in building the houses by our client.

Anything that can be offered in exchange for them must prove up to same condition. No inflation.

Now who wants to exchange at these prices. The money from the sale of the others will be used in building operations in Sierra Madre by our client. What can you do to get this party into Sierra Madre.

We Want Acreage Only--Either Improved or Unimproved

MATING OF RED HEADS

Are red haired girls more popular than their sisters? If not, then think of the number of red headed spinsters you have known. You will have to scratch your head a long time before you can remember a single Titian haired wall flower. If the theory of connoisseurs of feminine beauty is true, Missouri will become famous, not for commonplace things like mules and "houn' dogs," but for red headed girls, according to press dispatches.

This year at the University of Missouri there are more red-headed coeds than ever before. And, although they did not monopolize masculine attentions, they had to keep date calendars at finger ends to avoid misunderstandings.

The brilliance of women with red hair, it is said here, has been proven by history—Queen Elizabeth, Marie Antoinette, Cleopatra, Helen of Troy. Prof. C. B. Davenport, who has carried on extensive research work in eugenics, says:

"A curious antipathy is that of red haired persons of opposite sex for each other. Among thousands of matings I have found only two cases where both husband and wife are red headed, and I am assured by red haired persons that the antipathy exists. If, as it is sometimes alleged, red hair is frequently associated with a condition of nervous irritability, this is an eugenic antipathy."

Red hair is a funny thing, the authorities say. It will turn up generation after generation. It is a known fact that at times the child of two black haired parents develops a full crop of red hair.

Scientists here try to explain why hair is red. They say it is from a superabundance of iron in the blood. The color of hair is due to a pigment called melanin, which is secreted in the roots of hairs. Absence of this coloring matter makes white hair. Melanin is formed by oxidation. A variety of organic compounds may undergo oxidation into melanin pigments ranging in intensity from yellow to black; the greater the oxidation the darker the product. And iron, when oxidized, inside of the body as well as out of it, produces red.

"MADE IN CALIFORNIA"

San Francisco Star.—To support home industries by using the products of home industry is sensible. To give preference to products of home industry is one way of building up home industries. But it is not the only way to build up home industries.

The best and easiest way to build up home industries is to remove every burden and every obstacle that now rests upon or stands in the way of natural development. We cannot promote industry by taxing industry; we can promote industry by abolishing all taxes on industry.

If we tax industries after getting them, we benefit the landlord and no one else. The landlord is not engaged in industry. Industry creates wealth; the landlord absorbs wealth created by industry. As population and industry increase, the landlord takes more and more; but he gives nothing in return for what he takes.

The people who produce the wealth should have that wealth. To change our tax laws so that men will not be taxed for producing wealth, and will not be taxed on the wealth produced, will promote home industry and make California prosperous.

DESK AND OFFICE SUPPLIES

Some people have not been aware that the News Printery carried office supplies as well as printing business stationery. We are now better prepared to display our stock and you are invited to look it over at your convenience. You will find all kinds of writing materials, pens, pencils, inks, clips and paper fasteners, rulers, inkstands, pushpins, picture and card hangers, dating stamps, ink pads, thumb tacks, all sizes of envelopes, and lots of other things you are likely to need at any time. Orders taken for rubber stamps, brass signs and stencils. "Next the postoffice."

How to Make Spring Suit.

The classical tailor made will still be the plain skirt, and this will depend on the cut for its style. The coat, of a new model, is very like a man's morning coat in shape and has a fancy white waistcoat. A band of white shows slightly under the coat sleeve cuff, resembling the effect created by a man's shirt cuff.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

Central Avenue, Sierra Madre, Los Angeles County, California, at 3 o'clock p. m. on July 17, 1913, for the purpose of receiving the reports of the Secretary and Treasurer, the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting, and the election of Directors for the ensuing year.

Editorial Chat

On the same page of an exchange are chronicled the divorce of an elderly couple and the marriage of one of their sons. Cynical readers might be inclined to quote the adage, "Fools rush in where angels fear to tread."
But an unbiased view of the situation seems to make more appropriate the saying: "There's no fool like an old fool."

Biggest Liar in Town

After considerable investigation I have found the biggest liar in Sierra Madre. There may be one exception, but that may be ignored. No one is so frequently quoted as this liar referred to, almost every one passing along the gossip from this source. The most surprising thing about it is the abominable character of the stuff which respectable people repeat, apparently squaring it with conscience by the use of quotation marks. No one is secure from attacks from this source, and most people will listen to them
as if coming from the ultimate authority. This source of falsehood personified is usually quoted as "They say." What part have you had in building up that prestige which makes it the worst source of evil in the community

Here's Your Hat

Are you a booster for Sierra Madre?
If not, why do you stay?

Natural and Artificial Criminals

Julian Hawthorne writes from his Atlanta prison cell in defense of what he pleases to call "artificial criminals."
He refers to the men of gentle birth and breeding who, in the pursuit of their gentlemanly and time honored occupations, suddenly found themselves violators of newly created laws which make their business methods
"technically illegal." The son of the great author uses the same fine ability in phrasing which he used when coaxing dollars from the pockets of prospective investors in fake mining schemes. But he misses the point. Instead of being now merely artificial criminals these fellows were before only artificially honest. They employed clever lawyers to tell them just how far they could go in reaping where they had not sown without actually violating the letter of the law.
When brought into court they hid behind technicalities and legally justifified the most barefaced robbery. When the public compelled the passage of laws to fit their particular methods
they found an apt spokesman in Julian Hawthorne.
